

MEMORIAL HANDBOOK
Updated on 11 May 2021

Gracious God, we entrust our loved one into your loving hands. We give you thanks for the love and friendship we shared together.

Send your Holy Spirit to deepen our faith in your presence and fill us with hope that your promises may be fulfilled for our loved one. Amen.

This handbook is to help you in the planning the memorial service of a loved one. It offers a sample service and a step-by-step explanation of the options within the service.

Please know that you can be confident that all the people with whom you will be dealing in preparation for the service want to help you in every way.

The service is according to The Book of Common Prayer of the Episcopal Church and finds all its meaning in the resurrection. Because Jesus was raised from the dead, we, too, shall be raised. The service, therefore, is characterized by joy, in the certainty that “neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

This joy, however, does not make human grief unchristian. The very love we have for each other in Christ brings deep sorrow when we are parted by death. Jesus himself wept at the grave of his friend. So, while we rejoice that one we love has entered into the nearer presence of our Lord, we sorrow in sympathy with those who mourn.

The fact that you are reading this guide means that you have lost someone important in your life. People grieve in different ways and on different timetables. Please take care of yourself and be patient with yourself.

St. Mark's Episcopal Church: A Community of Grace

We embrace Christ at the center of our lives, sharing the Gospel with all people and loving ourselves and each other as Christ loves us.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

I want to have a reception to celebrate the life of my father who will be buried with my mother. But I don't want to leave the reception early nor have the people wait until I get back from the mortuary. Does the Internment service at the mortuary need to immediately follow the Church service?

No. It has become customary for these two events to occur on different days. The public church service is usually scheduled at a time when the whole community can gather to support the family and celebrate the life of the loved one. The internment of ashes or the body is sometimes delayed because of limitations by a third party like the mortuary or medical examiner. They may happen on different days and in any order.

How many people should I have speak at the service?

About two for the Eulogy; up to three for the readings; maybe one for the prayers; and a family member to thank people for their attendance and an invitation to the reception if appropriate. Everyone is invited to participate in the service through the various prayers and songs when selected.

An "open mike" for any to share their stories of the loved one is encouraged at the reception. The church liturgy is structured to support the family and community using a format similar to the community at worship on Sunday morning reinforcing the action of and connection with God through Jesus Christ.

What should the people delivering the Eulogy speak about?

A celebration of life will include two types of information presented at the Eulogy. First, the loved one's biography. This is important because people move in and out of our lives and even close friends lose contact and may not be aware of past or current personal information of the loved one. Second, stories and memories of the loved one. Please select one or two people who can prepare and deliver these stories on behalf of the family for the community.

I have lots of pictures. What should I do?

The display of pictures is optional. However if you do have them, they can help personalize the service. A customary option is to have one picture to be displayed at the front of the church. Hybrid worship makes slideshows and other presentations possible.

My uncle is a Presbyterian minister. Would he be allowed to take part in memorial service?

Yes, he is welcome to share in the liturgy. He may read the prayers or one of the lessons, or give a eulogy or a blessing. Discuss the opportunities with the Rector and your uncle and decide how you would like the ceremony conducted.

My aunt is an organist. Would she be allowed to play the organ in the service?

It is possible. However, you will still be responsible for the full fees for our organist. And she will need to arrange a meeting at our organist's convenience in order review protocol and procedures. This practice is commonplace and recognizes the fact that organs are complex, valuable and sensitive instruments.

Is it okay to have a church service during a school day?

Yes.

What about interning the cremains?

The memorial garden at St. Mark's is a free option for those who are seeking a place of peace to place a loved one's cremains. Standardized name plaques are available.

SOME MUSIC SUGGESTIONS

Memorial services at St. Mark's are best supported by music from our designated hymnals. It is also appropriate for a soloist to present a religious piece of music such as the Ave Maria in the context of the service. Please present other music at the reception. Hymns are from The Hymnal 1982

151	From deepest woe I cry to thee
194/195	Jesus lives! Thy terrors now
208	Alleluia! The strife is o'er, the battle done
287	For all the saints, who from their labors rest
326	From glory to glory advancing
335	I am the bread of life
338	Wherefore, O Father, we thy humble servants
354	Into paradise may the angels lead you
355	Give rest, O Christ, to your servant(s)
356	May choirs of angels lead you to paradise on high
357	Jesus, Son of Mary
358	Christ the Victorious, give to your servants
429	I'll praise my Maker while I've breath
444	Blessed be the God of Israel
447	The Christ who died but rose again
455/456	O Love of God, how strong and true
487	Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life
499	Lord God, you now have set your servant free
517	How lovely is thy dwelling place
560	Remember your servants, Lord
620	Jerusalem, my happy home
621/622	Light's abode, celestial Salem
623	O what their joy and their glory must be
625	Ye holy angels bright
635	If thou but trust in God to guide thee
636/637	How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord
645/646	The King of love my shepherd is
658	As long as the deer for cooling streams
663	The Lord my God my shepherd is
664	My Shepherd will supply my need
665	All my hope on God is founded
666	Out of the depths I call
668	I to the hills will lift mine eyes
680	O god, our help in ages past
687/688	A mighty fortress is our God
690	Guide me, O thou great Jehovah
692	I heard the voice of Jesus say

A CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF
NAME
Month Day, Year of Birth to Month Day, Year of Death

Day, Month Day, Year at Time of Service
Place
Address if different from St. Mark's

About 10 to 15 minutes before the start of the service, the family of the loved one is invited to gather in the Parish Hall for a prayer with the clergy. This time allows the family to prepare for the service and it also signals to the community to take their seats. After the prayer, the family will be escorted to their seats by an usher.

Opening Anthem

I am resurrection and I am life, says the Lord. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.

As for me, I know that my Redeemer lives and that at the last he will stand upon the earth. After my awaking, he will raise me up; and in my body I shall see God. I myself shall see, and my eyes behold him who is my friend and not a stranger.

We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord. So, then, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. Happy from now on are those who die in the Lord! So it is, says the Spirit, for they rest from their labors.

(Optional) Opening Hymn: #123 "Title of hymn" found in the blue hymnal

Opening Prayer

O God of grace and glory, we remember before you this day Name. We thank you for giving her/him/them to us, her/his/their family and friends, to know and to love as a companion on our earthly pilgrimage. In your boundless compassion, console us who mourn. Give us faith to see in death the gate of eternal life, so that in quiet confidence we may continue our course on earth, until, by your call, we are reunited with those who have gone before; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Readings

First Testament; Psalm; New Testament; and Gospel Citations

One or more readings are presented. Please note that chapter and verse citations are not customarily spoken aloud. To see more options, please go to the “Burials” page of the “Lectionary Page” website at:

A reading from the book of Lamentations

Read by Name, Relation (Optional)

The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. "The LORD is my portion," says my soul, "therefore I will hope in him." The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him. It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the LORD. For the Lord will not reject forever. Although he causes grief, he will have compassion according to the abundance of his steadfast love; for he does not willingly afflict or grieve anyone.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The reading above is Lamentations 3: 22-26, 31-33. You may also choose from the following: Isaiah 25:6-9; Isaiah 61:1-3; Wisdom 3:1-5,9;and Job 19:21-27a.

Please read the Psalm in unison.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The reading above is the 23rd Psalm from the King James Version. You may also choose from the following: Psalm 23; 42:1-7; 46; 90:1-12; 121; 130; 139:1-11 (NRSV).

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Romans

Read by Name, Relation (Optional)

Who is to condemn? It is Christ Jesus, who died, yes, who was raised, who is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

The reading above is from Romans 8: 34-35, 37-39. You may also choose from the following: Romans 8: 14-19, 34-35, 37-39, 1 Corinthians 15:20-6, 35-8, 42-4, 53-8; 2 Corinthians 4:16—5:9; 1 John 3:1-2; Revelation 7:9-17; Revelation 21:2-7

(Optional) Sequence Hymn: #123 "Title of hymn" found in the blue hymnal

Please stand and face the reader for the proclamation of the Gospel.

The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to John.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going." Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?" Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

The Gospel of our Savior.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The reading above from John 14:1-6. You may also choose from the following: John 5:24-27; John 6:37-40; John 10:11-16; John 11:21-27

The Apostles' Creed

In the assurance of eternal life given at Baptism, let us proclaim our faith and say the Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Prayers

Read by Name, Relation (Optional)

For the Prayers you may have a clergy person lead the prayers or appoint the person who leads the prayers also known as the Intercessor.

Please choose between the 2 forms:

Form 1

Intercessor: For Name, let us pray to our Lord Jesus Christ who said, "I am Resurrection and I am Life." Lord, in your mercy;

Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: Lord, you consoled Martha and Mary in their distress; draw near to us who mourn for Name, and dry the tears of those who weep. Lord, in your mercy;

Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: You wept at the grave of Lazarus, your friend; comfort us in our sorrow.
Lord, in your mercy;
Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: You raised the dead to life; give to Name eternal life. Lord, in your mercy;
Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: You promised paradise to the thief who repented; bring Name to the joys of heaven. Lord, in your mercy;
Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: Name was washed in Baptism and anointed with the Holy Spirit; give her/him/them fellowship with all your saints. Lord, in your mercy;
Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: Name was nourished with your Body and Blood; grant her/him/them a place at the table in your heavenly kingdom. Lord, in your mercy;
Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: Comfort us in our sorrows at the death of Name; let our faith be our consolation, and eternal life our hope. Lord, in your mercy;
Community: Hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Father of all, we pray to you for Name, and for all those whom we love but see no longer. Grant to them eternal rest. Let light perpetual shine upon them. May her/his/their soul and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Community: Amen.

Or Form 2

Intercessor: Gracious God, we thank you for Name, who was so near and dear to us, and who has now been taken from us. Lord, in your mercy;
Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: We thank you for the love Name gave and received and for the strength and peace she/he/they brought. Lord, in your mercy;
Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: We pray that all the good things in Name's life will be remembered; that all that was important to her/him/them will be respected by those who follow; and that everything in which she/he/they was/were great will continue to mean much to us now that she/he/they is/are gone. Lord, in your mercy;

Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: We ask you that Name may go on living in her/his/their family and her/his/their friends; in our hearts and minds, in our hope and our courage. Lord, in your mercy;

Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: We ask you that we who were close to Name may now, because of her/his/their death, be even closer to each other, and that we may, in peace and friendship here on earth, always be deeply aware of your promise to be faithful to us in death. Lord, in your mercy;

Community: Hear our prayer.

Intercessor: We pray for ourselves, who are tested by this death, that we do not try to minimize this loss, or seek refuge from it in words alone, and also that we do not brood over it so that it overwhelms us and isolates us from others. Lord, in your mercy;

Community: Hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Father of all, we pray to you for Name, and for all those whom we love but see no longer. Grant to them eternal rest. Let light perpetual shine upon them. May her/his/their soul and the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Community: Amen.

If there is no Holy Communion, the service continues with the Lord's Prayer, and then continues with the Commendation Prayer below.

Explanation of the Holy Eucharist

The Eucharist is the church's most powerful sign of God's grace and presence in our lives, in the community, and in the world through Jesus Christ. In this church it is not meant to feel exclusive. All are invited.

If you wish to receive the bread, please hold out your hand. You may eat it, or have it dipped in wine. If you wish to take a sip of wine, please help the minister guide the chalice to your lips. If you want to receive a blessing instead of the bread or wine, please come forward and cross your arms across your chest.

(Optional) Offertory Music:

Offering of Symbols (Optional):

The family brings forward objects that represent Name (as well as the gifts of bread and wine).

Receive, O Lord, these symbols presented by Name's family as a sign of their love for her/him/them and of her/his/their love shared with others.

*Community: Blessed be God forever.

If young children present the symbols the following prayer may be said:

Blessed are you Lord God of all creation. You have blessed us with the joy and care of children. And we ask your special blessing today on Name (and Names). May the knowledge of you dawn on them, may the love of you grow in them and may the grace of your Spirit draw them to you.

*Community: Blessed be God forever.

The bread and wine are brought to the Altar in one of two ways.

1. They may already be on the Altar.
2. You may appoint people to bring up the bread and wine. This role is especially good for those who do not wish a speaking part. These people are called Oblation Bearers.

The gifts of bread and wine are brought to the Altar on behalf of the community by Name, Relation (and Name, Relation).

The Great Thanksgiving: Eucharistic Prayer A

Presider: God be with you.
Community: And also with you.
Presider: Lift up your hearts.
Community: We lift them to the Lord.
Presider: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
Community: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and every-where to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who rose victorious from the dead, and comforts us with the blessed hope of everlasting life. For to your faithful people, O Lord, life is changed, not ended; and when our mortal body lies in death, there is prepared for us a dwelling place eternal in the heavens. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Community: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life. On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Community: We remember Christ's death. We proclaim Christ's resurrection. We await Christ's coming in glory.

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Savior of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. In Christ's sacrifice, unite us that we may be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Savior, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation. By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Community: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
Community: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Communion Music (Optional):

After Communion (Please remain seated until the final blessing.)

Almighty God, we thank you that in your great love you have fed us with the spiritual food and drink of the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ, and have given us a foretaste of your heavenly banquet. Grant that this Sacrament may be to us a comfort in affliction, and a pledge of our inheritance in that kingdom where there is no death, neither sorrow nor crying, but the fullness of joy with all your saints; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

If there is no Holy Communion, the service continues with the Lord's Prayer, and then continues with the Commendation Prayer below.

Commendation Prayer (Please remain seated.)

Let us thank God for Name. For the love she/he/they offered and received; for all the good things in her/his/their life; for all that was important to her/him/them; for everything in which she/he/they was great; and for all the things she/he/they will be remembered for by us, her/his/their family and friends.

Let us remember before God Name.

Silence or Commendation Anthem

Give rest, O Christ, to your servant with your saints, where sorrow and pain are no more, neither sighing, but life everlasting. You only are immortal, the creator and maker of humankind; and we are mortal, formed of the earth, and to earth shall we return. For so did you ordain when you created me, saying, "You are dust, and to dust you shall return."

All of us go down to the dust; yet even at the grave we make our song:

Community: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Into your hands, O merciful Savior, we commend your servant, Name. Acknowledge, we humbly beseech you, a sheep of your own fold, a lamb of your own flock, a child of your own redeeming. Receive her/him/them into the arms of your mercy, into the blessed rest of everlasting peace, and into the glorious company of the saints of light. Amen.

Committal Prayer

In sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ, we commend to Almighty God Name; earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust. The Lord bless her/him/them and keep her/him/them, the Lord make his face to shine upon her/him/them and be gracious to her/him/them, the Lord lift up his countenance upon her/him/them and give her/him/them peace. Amen.

Words from the Family

Please invite a family representative to offer thanks, invitation, instruction, greeting, and/or acknowledgement as appropriate:

“On behalf of the family, we thank you all for being here. Your prayers and presence mean so much to us. A reception will immediately follow the service in the parish hall. Everyone is invited please come. The interment will be next month in mom’s home town. Thank you for being here.”

Blessing and Dismissal (Please stand.)

...and the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be upon you now and forever. Amen.

Go out into the world in peace; have courage; hold onto what is good; return no one evil for evil; strengthen the faint-hearted; support the weak, and help the suffering; honor all people; love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Community: Thanks be to God. Alleluia! Alleluia!

If there is a casket, then your chosen Pall Bearers will gather around the casket at this time and follow the directions of the mortuary representatives.

*Please remain in place until the family leaves first.
The family is immediately followed by the honorary pall bearers.*

Recessional Music (Optional):

A reception follows the service at the residence of Name (or in the Parish Hall).

Many thanks to those who participated in this memorial service:
